

Egypt Road Park is 95 acres of public recreation space on Egypt Road across from Maple Elementary School in Cambridge, Maryland. While largely a wooded area, Egypt Road Park features a well-defined walking / running trail that also serves as the home course for the Cambridge South Dorchester High School cross country team. In addition, there are picnic tables and a pond on this scenic property.

